FROM RABBI BENJAMIN SHARFF

June 2018

I, along with 27 fellow weary travelers, recently returned from our travels to the Land of Israel. Many of you followed along with my posts regarding our trip. For those of you who would like to learn more, you can read my blog posts at: http://rhythmguitarrabbi.blogspot.com.

It was an amazing journey. The trip also concluded right before a very controversial time in the history of modern Israel. Shortly after our return, the United States began the process of moving its Embassy to Jerusalem. Technically speaking though, the U.S. basically made one of its two consulates in Jerusalem into an embassy. The process of actually building a new embassy is one that could take years and cost millions of dollars. Thus, the move in many ways is symbolic more than anything else.

However, in a land filled with history, as we learned on our trip, symbols mean everything. For example, we visited the site of King David's tomb as well as the location of the Last Supper. Whether or not either of these are historically accurate is not relevant to those seeking out the power and meaning of those locations. It is a strange contradiction in a land filled with contradictions. Or, as we often found ourselves repeating: it's complicated.

What is clear is that Jerusalem is the capital of Israel. It was established as its capital in 1948, and no other nation in the world has not had its capital accepted by the world community. All of Israel's major governmental organizations, including the Office of the Prime Minister, the Knesset and the Supreme Court, are all located in Jerusalem. Every ambassador who lives in Tel Aviv has to travel to Jerusalem if they wish to do governmental business with Israeli officials.

In this way, the moving of the embassy is a formal acknowledgment of what is already in place on the ground. But as we mentioned, it's complicated. Due to the lack of a current negotiated peace settlement, every decision has ramifications for the greater region. This helps to explain why so many were in favor and why there were also many against this decision.

But let's not kid ourselves, the violence in Gaza had little to do with the moving of the embassy. That is a whole other story for another time.

What I can tell you is that by traveling to the land and meeting with Israelis, we learned how skewed perceptions are towards Israel. Even Israelis are very much conflicted over the decisions their government makes. We also were reminded that most Israelis are primarily focused on getting by each day. Much of Israel is safe and calm, and it continues to be an amazing and fascinating country to visit.

Upon our return, I have heard people tell me that they are thankful we got out before everything ratcheted up in intensity. I, for one, already miss being there. Being in a country that embodies Jewish time is reinvigorating for the soul. Walking the paths that Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Joshua, and so many more tread, elevated my footsteps. Yes, Israel lives in a dangerous neighborhood in complicated times, but I wouldn't hesitate to go back.

I am so grateful to everyone who joined in the journey, and if you are interested in a future trip to Israel, or any other part of the Jewish world like Spain, Eastern Europe, the Caribbean or the like, just let me know. We are ready to plan our next trip. It won't be the same without you.

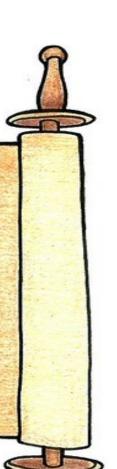

B'Shalom,

Rabbi Benjamin Sharff

June Bat Mitzvah Alina Levin

June 9, 2018

Hi, I'm Alina. I am being called to the Torah as a Bat Mitzvah on June 9th. I am in 7th grade at Fieldstone Middle School. In my spare time, I enjoy performing in Shakespeare plays, debating, discussing literature, and playing chess (which is a sport). I am also currently trying to learn guitar.

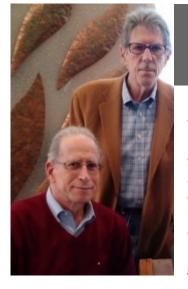

Adult Education and the Religious School hosted an Earth Day "Chaike." Thank you to all who came out and enjoyed the beautiful morning on April 22!

FROM THE CO-PRESIDENTS, ALLEN FETTERMAN & BARRY WEISS

A Farwell Message

Well, the end of our copresidency is upon us. We want to use this last article as your presidents to reflect on the past four years. First, let us say that it has been our honor, privilege and pleasure to serve the congregation. You put your collective trust in us, and we hope that we have met your expectations. We both realize that we have gotten so much more from our years of service to RTR than we have given. We have made many new friends during our time as co-presidents.

Looking back at the past four years, our Board of Trustees and our many committees and task forces have accomplished the following:

- Merging the two congregations, Temple Beth El and Temple Beth Torah, into one congregation: The Reform Temple of Rockland.
- Merging cultures, policies, processes and procedures into one cohesive entity. We are extremely proud of our members to have accomplished this in such a brief period. We think that it is fair to say that we are now one united congregation.
- Deciding on our clergy team, from the two rabbis and two cantors from our legacy congregations, which was a very difficult and emotional process.
- Hiring Rabbi Benjamin Sharff, RTR's first rabbi (not from one of our two legacy congregations). We all agree that Rabbi Sharff and Cantor Neff make a wonderful team who will serve us for many years into the future.
- Hiring our Administrator, Jolie Levy. Jolie has brought her experience and dedicated professionalism to our administrative staff, resulting in the smooth operation of our office and building.
- Creating the new position of Director of Congregational Learning and hiring Brad Zicholtz to fill that position. Brad has brought some wonderful new ideas to our Religious School, Youth Group and Adult Education programs.
- Determining which building would be our home for the forseeable future and then selling the Spring Valley campus for an amount significantly in excess of our expectations.

- Creating an Investment Task Force to oversee the investment of the proceeds from the sale of the Spring Valley campus and to determine an investment policy that will maximize return and minimize risk.
- Creating a Long-Range Financial Planning Task Force charged with developing plans to ensure our financial viability into the future. To date, this task force has come up with some very thought-provoking ideas. We expect their work will continue into the near future.
- Asking the Building Committee to come up with a plan to repair and renovate our building, making it safer and more aesthetically pleasing. The congregation has recently approved the expenditure of approximately $700 thousand for this project.

As you can tell from the above (which is certainly not an all-inclusive list), the past four years have been very busy. The two of us played a role in leading RTR, but nothing would have been accomplished without our Board of Trustees and our committees. Our board is made up of 25 hard-working individuals, whose dedication to RTR made our job much easier. We thank each and every one of you. The congregation owes each of you a debt of gratitude. In addition to the board, our committee chairs, committee members and all other volunteers are the backbone of RTR. Without those people, RTR would not be what, nor where, it is today.

We also need to thank Rabbi Sharff and Cantor Neff for their guidance and counsel. Their steady hands at the helm convince us that we have a bright future together, indeed.

Last, but certainly not least, we wish to thank our wives, Mimi and Laura. There is no doubt that we could not have done this without their unwavering support and guidance.

To our incoming president, Adrian Modansky, and the officers and trustees who will work alongside her (assuming the congregations approves the slate), we wish the greatest of success. We know that RTR will be in competent hands and will continue to thrive. We hope that Adrian enjoys her new position as much as we have.

FROM BRAD ZICHOLTZ, DIRECTOR OF CONGREGATIONAL LEARNING

Closing Time

This past month saw the end of our Religious School year and my first year at RTR. I believe it was a very successful year, but how exactly do we measure success in a supplementary Jewish school? It cannot be simply measured by how well our learners know their prayers or can recognize Hebrew letters. There is more to Judaism than that. It cannot be simply measured by knowing Torah stories or memorizing facts about Jewish history. There is more to Judaism than that. It cannot be simply measured by how many mitzvot one has performed. There is more to Judaism than that. As HUC professor Michael Meyer states, "An educated Jew may still be an uncommitted Jew. It also implies the end of a process. Jewish knowledge deepens Jewish commitment but it doesn't create it. It is inefficient. Jewish experiences, especially those during early childhood, create the emotional matrix within which cognitive learning can be lodged." Successful Jewish education happens when you affect the heart and the mind.

This year I saw a lot of smiles, I saw educational projects done with pride, I saw connections made between learners, teachers, our community. I saw learners make progress in their Hebrew and their understanding of our shared history. I heard beautiful singing. I saw curiosity. I saw success.

Please don't forget to register your child for our fabulous Religious School! The flyer has all the information. If you know of someone who might be looking to start their child on the path of Jewish learning, please let them know they can contact me at anytime.

YOUTH GROUP NEWS AND NOTES

Could it be that time of year again when we are counting the days until the end of school and the beginning of summer vacation? You bet it is!! While this time of year is a start to many great events to come, it also marks the end of others. One in particular is the end of the second year of RTR's Youth Groups! From a visit to Jill's Ceramics to bowling, from celebrating Earth Day to pumpkin picking, from 5 Wits and Buffalo Wild Wings to NFTY-GER Regional events, What a Year it's Been!!! There were many more activities as well. Many friendships were made and will hopefully be continued during the summer and into next year.

The final event of this year will be our end-of-year pool party on June 10!

Thanks so much to the Jay family for once again opening their backyard to us! Our Youth Groupers will swim from 1:00-3:00PM! Pizza and snacks will be served! Please bring a gallon of apple juice to be donated to the Rhoda Bloom Food Pantry.

The success of all of our Youth Groups is realized for many reasons. The primary reason is the children. We are very fortunate to have a dedicated group of children who have responded to the activities in a positive manner. The parents are major contributors to the program's success. Their willingness to chaperone has added to the enjoyment and safety of the children at every event. We are grateful to RTR's clergy and staff for their support!

Our final thanks go to RTR's Men's Club and our very dedicated Youth Committee! Our Youth Groups would not exist without their guidance and financial support. Their programs and fundraisers are planned for the purpose of supporting our Temple's youth programs.

Registration information for next year will be coming your way soon! If you know of a Jewish child or teen who might be interested in joining us, please contact us and we will send them information! (They do not have to be RTR members or members of any temple – they simply have to be Jewish!)

We wish all of you a wonderful summer and look forward to seeing old and new faces next year in Youth Group. As always, if you have any questions, please call us at the numbers below.

Meet Steve & Judy Levy

Psychologist (Steve) meets nurse (Judy) – sparks fly and marriage with two children (Meryl and Dan) follows. The growing family moves to Nanuet from Manhattan in 1975. Small school, trees and grass – we love it. Then Steve does a reverse commute to the old neighborhood for four years (who knew?).

Judy has always been helping people. Not only in her nursing career as a catastrophic case manager, but in her personal life by volunteering at the Rhoda Bloom Kosher Food Pantry, Grace Episcopal Church and People to People.

Steve takes up rock drumming at age 45. Judy increases her volunteering hours by escaping the house when Steve's band named GRANDPA rehearses in their family room. RTR members Steve Iger and Mike Rutter are also in the six-man band.

* * * * *

RTR is where we both connect to our Jewish identity. In both practical and spiritual ways, we have both drawn from service to the temple, prayer and music. Our children have continued in the Reform tradition and our oldest grandson (we have three and they are brothers) became a Bar Mitzvah last year. Judy is co-chair of the Chesed committee and is a member of fundraising as well. We both volunteer at Helping Hands each winter.

We have been hosting seders on Passover for family and friends since the kids were born. It is the happiest holiday for us and we follow ritual as well as eating a fabulous meal.

Thanks for sharing your story Judy and Steve! Your RTR family would like to extend a Mazel Tov to you both for being one of this year's Rockland Jewish Family Service honorees who exemplify leadership in our community!

LET'S TALK ART

The display located on the wall of the lower level opposite the Tucker Lounge is pictures (some by well-known artists) and photos acquired over the 70 year history of Temple Beth El.

The pictures and photos are framed by colorful tapestries that were the inserts in the center of the Ark Doors in the Sanctuary at the second Temple of TBE. The story of these inserts is that the Sisterhood women of the first Temple on Jackson Street in Spring Valley wanted the memories of their participation there to be preserved. Rabbi Frishman knew just the person to accomplish this task! Feige Aronoff, an artist extraor-dinaire and a member of Temple, agreed to undertake this commission. Her ideas, in conjunction with the building architect, Alden Dow, were the basis for the design. The women were asked to donate swatches of the clothing they had worn for memorable occasions, weddings, b'nai mitzvah, etc. These were then sewn together as a patchwork creating an everlasting memory.

To view this display in full color go to our website and click on NEWSLETTER: JUNE 2018 on the HOME page.

VOLUNTEERING & OUTREACH

Rhoda Bloom Food Pantry

Volunteers are needed monthly. The shift starts at 8:45 AM and ends before noon.

Upcoming Volunteer Days: Jun 10, Jul 15, Aug 19

One in six Americans is affected by "food insecurity" – the lack of consistent, dependable access to food due to limited money or resources. Rockland Jewish Family Service works to alleviate hunger in our community through the Rhoda Bloom Kosher Food Pantry, which delivers kosher food to anyone in Rockland who is in need.

ONE OF THE GREATEST GIFTS YOUR TIME

The Food Pantry currently feeds approximately 200 families in our community. RTR has been asked to donate 200 HALF GALLON KOSHER APPLE JUICE CONTAINERS each month to the Rhoda Bloom Kosher Food Pantry. Please drop off juice donations in the bins downstairs in front of the office or in the upstairs lobby.

RTR needs a volunteer to coordinate monthly juice orders. Please call the office if you can help! It only requires a few phone calls each month.

Can You Make a Phone Call?

Compassionate RTR Congregants Needed Some in our RTR family would love an occasional friendly phone call or visit. Let's do a mitzvah and show that we care for each other! To volunteer, email Eva Steen: eesteen@optonline.net

Can You Drive a Car?

RTR is seeking volunteer drivers (21 or older) to provide transportation for congregants who are unable to drive themselves. If you will be coming to Friday or Saturday services or any events and have room in your car, please contact Jolie Levy, Temple Administrator, at (845) 358-2248 or Jolie@RTRny.org to get matched up with someone in your area who might be in need of a ride.

Your help would be greatly appreciated!

LIFE'S MOST PERSISTENT AND URGENT QUESTION IS: WHAT ARE YOU DOING OR OTHERS?

VOLUNTEERING & OUTREACH

YAHRZEIT CALLERS NEEDED

Callers are needed to make a few (3-4) brief, weekly calls to remind people of the service schedule for their loved one's Yahrzeit. Names, relevant information and the script are provided weekly via email. You must have access to email to help with this project. If interested in helping, please email Jorie Sear at volunteer@RTRny.org. Your help would be greatly appreciated! Please Note: Any request for changes to Yahrzeit name readings made with the office will not be reflected in the reminder calls.

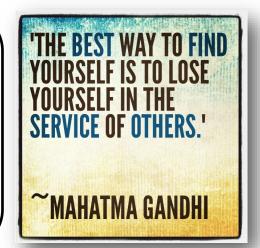

Do you have a steamer and an hour or two to spare? We're looking for a volunteer to help keep our building warm and welcoming. Call the office if you're available at 845-358-2248.

Sisterhood/WRJ Assists Homeless Women

As part of our community outreach, we are collecting feminine hygiene products for the women who are served by Helping Hands, Rockland's program to aid and shelter homeless Rocklanders.

We are accepting sanitary napkins and tampons ONLY.

Kindly donate these products by bringing them to a Sisterhood meeting or by placing them in either the collection bin outside the temple office or the one in the upstairs lobby. Thank you for your generosity and kindness.

Give Your Old Shoes a New Life!

Sisterhood/WRJ continues their fundraiser collecting used shoes, which are "worn, but definitely not worn out!" Used shoes are in great demand in developing countries. Recycled shoes create jobs and fuel local economies. Please drop off pairs of men's, women's or children's shoes. Look for donation boxes in the upstairs lobby and downstairs entrance.

Do you have a child in college?

Please email the mailing address to Ruth Schlanger at rjs521@aol.com. RTR and the Sisterhood/WRJ want our college students to remain part of our family and will send them some surprises while they are away at college.

TIME IS RUNNING OUT!

The white yahrzeit plaques displayed in Spring Valley will be available for members through June 30, 2018. If you or someone you know is interested in collecting the plaques, please call the office with the names at 845-358-2248. The names will be pulled monthly and will be available for pick-up or mailing to out-of-state families.

MI SHEBEIRACH LIST

If you have names you would like to add or keep on the list, please email susan@RTRny.org or call 845-358-2248. Please remember to let us know when a name can be removed.

It's never too late to honor a simcha on our new and beautiful Tree of Life in our Main Lobby. Honor a birth, celebration, Bar or Bat Mitzvah or accomplishment on a permanent leaf. Two sizes are available.

It's also never too late to memorialize the death of a loved one on our stunning Yahrzeit Plaque wall.

Forms are available through our Office by calling 845-358-2248 or by emailing: Susan@RTRny.org.

Helpful Deadline Information & Guidelines

Please help us notify our members of important information and events by using these guidelines:

• WEEKLY (Wednesdays): e-Connections

Deadline: 3:00 PM Tuesday

Deadline: 10:00 AM Friday

Our weekly email, "e-Connections," goes out to our congregation every Wednesday. This communication is for upcoming events and important announcements only. It is intended to be a short (2-page max.) newsletter; it is not intended to run repetitive flyers or announcements (i.e., Soul Mates shoe collection). Text will be limited and graphics will be small. Flyers will be linked. Please note: stand-alone e-blasts are primarily for life cycle events.

• WEEKLY (Fridays): Erev Shabbat Services Handout

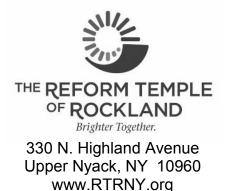

Each Friday, we prepare the Yahrzeit and Mi Shebeirach lists for the Erev Shabbat Services handout. If there are any changes/additions to these lists, please notify the RTR Office by 10 AM. Changes/additions made after the deadline will be communicated to clergy and appropriately read, but the handout will not be changed.

MONTHLY: Connections Deadline: 10th of the Prior Month (Ex: Dec 10th for Jan)

Each month, we produce a bulletin that is mailed to homes and businesses. Entries are due in the Office by the 10th of the month for inclusion in the following month's bulletin. This communication is intended for ongoing events, flyers, news, articles, and announcements.

Submission Guidelines: Please submit your own flyers. Be sure to include a date, time, location, description and contact person. We accept all formats. All of the above information can be emailed to Susan@RTRny.org.
