FROM THE RABBI

I've got a story to tell, and it is certainly not a bubbe-myseh. It is about four amazing teenagers who joined together not just to schmooze and nosh, but really to get to the tachlis of what it means to be a Jew. I am proud to say that this year's class truly is quite haimish. That is something to certainly kvell about! What is even more amazing is the four of them have known each other, some since preschool at our legacy congregation Temple Beth Torah.

All four of them are certainly *mensch*es and not yentes. Yet, no matter the lesson or the materials we prepared, this group of energetic enthusiastic young people, who were joined by our 8th and 9th grade, would often put the kibosh on our plans. This simply meant that we had to constantly change my shtick when it came to presenting topics for conversation because they wanted to always be learning more.

Now these students were certainly not schnuks or schlumps nor shlemiels or shlimazels, though they do have an appreciation for alliteration. At times they were all mavens to one degree or another, while at other times; they would simply be nudnicks or *letz*es.

The topics we covered were certainly not what we would consider drek, though when presented to them, they were never inclined to say "feh!" or "oy!" They diligently put away their chotchkees during the sessions and did not text each other or their friends because they loved to engage in the conversation. There was not a kvetch among them.

Now this may all just sound like mishugas, but there was an actual method to our madness. Through this course we hoped to raise up a group of Talmud hachams, all knowledgeable, wise and learned and not eingeshparht.

Thus, it is certainly a mechaieh to announce there is not a klutz or schlub among them. They all demonstrated tremendous sachel and would often make me want to proclaim, "That's my boychick (or girlchick)!" I am certainly not one to shep naches, though in retrospect maybe I am, but it has certainly been a pleasure teaching and learning with this year's Confirmation Class.

Nothing we discussed would anyone consider narrishkeit. This is because we covered such diverse topics as what Judaism has to say about sexual assault, antisemitism, the prevention of gun violence, Israel, Judaism and Christianity, Jewish values and transgender rights, the separation of church and state and where Judaism stands, and Judaism – culture and identity. Then of course there were the occasional reviews and introductions of the "Yiddish Words of the Day."

However, the most popular highlight of the year was our Confirmation trip to Washington, D.C. to participate in the Religious Action Center's program: L'taken. This program is focused on the idea of advocacy through the lens of Jewish values. Our students studied with nearly three-hundred fellow 10th graders along with a few 11th and 12th graders from around the country on topics like the prevention of gun violence, immigration, LGBTQ rights, minimum wage, and the like. Our students had a wonderful time meeting so many like-minded students from all over the country, and they may have even learned a thing or two about how Jews live outside of the state of New York.

Our group chose to speak about the prevention of gun violence. Our students wrote up their presentations and went and advocated to the Legislative Assistants of our representatives: Senator Charles Schumer and Congresswoman Nita Lowey. It was a powerful experience for them as they found they have a voice that can influence not just local issues, but also national issues, and that as Jews, they have a tradition to help guide them moving forward.

Please plan on joining us in celebration of this year's Confirmation Class at their Confirmation Service on Saturday, June 8, at 7 PM where Max Auerbach, Grace Beck, Hannah Lustig, and Ethan Miller will all confirm their continued commitment to their Jewish heritage and give us all something to kvell about. I can assure you they will all be dressed in their Shabbat-finest, with nary a shmatte to be found among them. Ethan, Hannah, Grace, and Max will not only be leading the service, but they have also picked out the musical selections as well. It will truly be their celebration and ours as well.

We look forward to seeing you there.

B'Shalom,

FROM THE PRESIDENT

It's hard to believe a year has passed since I took office. There have been so many ups and downs this year (more ups than downs), at The Reform Temple of Rockland.

At RTR we face the same challenges that other synagogues across North America face. "Jewish continuity" from one generation to the next has been a serious concern. While our youth are our future, our past, the generations that came before us, gave us the foundation that we continue to build on for the future. The names listed on our yahrzeit wall were the ones who built our congregation and contributed to our future. We would not have this beautiful building without them. We have an obligation to respect both generations. We need to bridge the gap between them and celebrate all.

With the recent violent attacks on our fellow congregations across our country, security has been a major concern of ours. We want you to come to temple and feel safe and be comfortable. In response to this, we now have professional security personnel on site at RTR. We have made changes within our building to also enhance our collective security.

We are well on our way to rebuilding our facility. The work on the roof has been completed as has the replacement of the air conditioners. We have replaced numerous external doors and installed shades on all of the windows and glass doors. Several of the other projects that were approved at last years congregational meeting are in the planning stage.

We continue to move forward in many aspects of Temple life. Our younger families are our future. Their children comprise our religious school, and fill our halls with laughter. We have thirteen new member families this year, many of whom have young children.

Another step we have taken to build for the future, beginning next year we will be providing free religious school tuition for all grades. Your help would be appreciated with your contribution to our Capital Campaign.

The families who have children in religious school enjoy programming and events for children. Our Oy Vey cafe is there for you to socialize with fellow parents while the children are attending religious school.

Those that enjoy music, want more incorporated into services. Congregants that come to Shabbat services on Saturday want a Minyan. Please join them. Come support RTR and attend something new and try it. We all need to do our share in participating as this is what family does for one another to survive.

Our members participate in what they enjoy. Examples are attending and participating at services, joining WRJ and Men's Club, or enjoying programs of Adult Ed, Social Action or any of the many other committees of RTR. We can only survive and thrive if you participate. We want to offer programs that you want and maintain community. We welcome you and hope to see you at both services and events.

Our future depends on your involvement. Get involved! On behalf of myself and the Board of Trustees, I encourage all of you to share your ideas and suggestions. As President I am the point of contact. If you have any questions please don't hesitate to ask them. That shows you care about what's going on. RTR belongs to all of us!

I look forward to seeing you at our Annual Congregational Meeting June 19, at 7:30 PM. The Board of Trustees will share our annual report and budget. I hope you will want to invest in our community's growth, education and spirituality. My heartfelt thanks for making this year a successful one. I look forward to the next year, and accomplishing that much more for you and our fellow congregants.

B'Shalom,

Adrian Modansky, President

FROM BRAD ZICHOLTZ, DIRECTOR OF CONGREGATIONAL LEARNING

On our penultimate Sunday, the whole school got to take a “tour” of Israel. They got to travel to Jerusalem where we showed a live feed from the Kotel.

Our learners were able to see in real time how people pray at the wall, learned why people walk backwards from the wall, and how the wall is broken into two separate sections for men and women (and how there is now a section where men and women can pray together). We then typed out prayers on the Western Wall Foundation’s website. Those prayers were printed and placed in the wall that very day. Afterwards, we feasted on hummus, pita, and Israeli snacks.

Then it was onto the Dead Sea. They got to try a science experiment to see how much salt it would take for an egg to float in the Dead Sea. After that, they traveled to Haifa (Technion University) where they played a match game for all things that were invented or created in Israel. Things like Waze, Mobile Eye (prevents car accidents), the Pill Cam, cherry tomatoes, and drip irrigation, which has helped an estimated 1 billion people worldwide.

Our last stop was Tel Aviv where they played the simple but popular Israeli children’s game, shalosh maklot. The game involves 3 sticks placed apart from each other on the ground. The person must step or jump between them without touching the sticks or stepping more than once. As the game goes on the sticks are moved further apart until the last person can make it.

The whole idea behind this experience was to show our students that Israel is not everything we hear on the news. It is not a war zone but a thriving and beautiful country with people living their lives. However, the question arises, why should we learn about Israel? What is our connection to a country thousands of miles away? I once watched a video of a rabbi who was asked, What does it mean to be Jewish? He struggled with the answer. He started with the idea that we are a religion but that didn’t quite fit as some Jews are not religious or even believe in God. He then thought about us as a nation or a race but those didn’t fit as well. He finally settled on the idea that the Jewish people is one big family. Sometimes we might not always get along or agree but we are still family and Israel is that home where it all started. We may not always agree with what is happening in Israel but it is the place where our family can always come home. Israel is a complicated place but one we should explore and wrestle with.

I hope that one day all of our students will get a chance to visit and see for themselves.

L’shalom,

Craig Lloyd Berkowitz will become a Bar Mitzvah on June 22, 2019. Craig is a 7th grade student at Felix Festa Middle School, whose favorite subjects are Science and Spanish. Outside of school, he enjoys learning languages, swimming, drawing dinosaurs and hanging out with his family.

Volunteering at The Rhoda Bloom Food Pantry — Craig's mitzvah project — has been a source of pride and accomplishment over the last year. Craig also enjoyed his time away at URJ Six Points Sci-Tech camp in Byfield, MA and is really excited to return this coming summer. And of course, Craig has also spent a lot of time studying and preparing for his special day.

Craig loves spending time with his brother, Kyle — making him laugh and teaching him all about dinosaur word meanings, Hebrew, Spanish and everything else he is learning and is eager to share! His parents, Eric and Lisa, are extremely proud of him and have really enjoyed watching him grow up into the kind and funny kid he is today. His grandparents, Marty and Norma Gottlieb, and Joe and Judy Berkowitz, are equally proud and are looking forward to June 22.

The entire family would like to thank Rabbi Sharff and Cantor Neff, all of the teachers and the Youth Group Advisors Robin and Elise for all of their guidance and supporting his Jewish education. Craig would like to thank the Rabbi and Cantor, and his Hebrew school teachers, including Ruth Schlanger, Carol Mansdorf, Yaffa Zweig, his dad Eric, and Tobe Rebhun for all of their dedication to teaching him and helping him reach this special milestone in his Jewish life.

2019 Confirmands: Sat, June 8, 2019

Max Auerbach

Max is finishing up his sophomore year at Clarkstown South High School and he is a part of South's mock trial team. Max has spent his past two summers at URJ Camp Harlam, and last summer he attended URJ Kutz Camp as well. This coming summer, Max will be participating in URJ's Urban Mitzvah Corps in New Brunswick, working with community organizations that help the underprivileged. This past year, Max was a songleader in NFTY's Garden Empire Region (GER) and got to put his guitar skills to use. In the year ahead, he will serve on NFTY-GER's Regional Board as Financial Vice President. Max loves NFTY-GER events, hanging out with friends, and jamming out to some Jewish music. Max has great memories of his early years at what was then Temple Beth Torah and appreciates the clergy, teachers and youth leaders who have helped him get to this point. Finally, Max would like to thank his mom and dad for helping him study for his Bar Mitzvah, and for getting him up at 8AM on a Sunday for the last 10 years.

Grace Beck

Grace is just finishing her Sophomore year at Nyack High School where she plays on the Volleyball team. She's been part of the community of RTR and the former Temple Beth Torah since she was 4 years old when she first followed Morah Ruth's nursery school class while dropping her brother Sam off for 1st grade. She's also been a madrachim (teen aid) volunteer at the Religious School for the past 2 years. As a big animal lover and equestrian, she's looking forward to next year where part of her daily curriculum will include an animal science program. She's looking forward to her upcoming summer trip where she'll be immersed in behind the scenes, hands-on work with animals at a zoological center, veterinary clinic and marine mammal lab. Grace would like to thank Rabbi Sharff, Cantor Neff and Brad Zicholtz for all their support, patience and sense of humor with she and her fellow confirmands.

Hannah Lustig

Hannah is a 10th grade honors student at Tappan Zee High School where she participates in many extra curricular activities including Social Justice Club, Science Olympiad, Leo Club, Italian Club, Stage Crew and Student Organization. Hannah is proud to be an active member of RTR where she happily spends her Sunday mornings as a Madrachim. Hannah is a hard worker and very passionate about what she believes in. Hannah is very serious about trying to make the world a better place for everyone and everything that lives in it. During her free time (which she doesn't have much of) she enjoys hanging out with friends, watching Disney movies and 80s movies, taking photographs and jamming out to music. She would like to thank her mom, dad, brother, and family for helping her throughout her religious education, and the entire RTR community for being so amazing.

Ethan Miller

On Saturday, June 8th, with much love and great pride, our family and friends will join together as Ethan Kyle Miller joyfully celebrates his confirmation at RTR. Ethan is a well-rounded 10th grade student at Clarkstown High School South where he continually maintains “Principal’s Honor Roll” status. Ethan was recently honored at South’s Celebration of Academic Excellence (an award given to students holding a GPA of 95 or above) and was inducted into Mu Alpha Theta, the mathematics honor society. Ethan has a love of singing and musical theatre. He has earned the honor of being the only student at South High School chosen to perform in the mixed chorus in this year’s Area All-State Music Festival and has been chosen to perform in the All-County mixed chorus for the past six years. His incredible singing talent has also landed him lead roles in the high school’s drama club performances as well as at the Helen Hayes Youth Theatre where he has been performing for the past 8 years. Ethan enjoys performing with the Troubadours, South’s select vocal ensemble. This group is by audition only and Ethan enjoys performing at various events throughout the county. Ethan is passionate about social justice and holds a seat on the Superintendent’s Advisory Council where he acts as liaison between the student body and the educators and administrators of the Clarkstown School District. He interns at a law firm that advocates for immigrant rights and he thoroughly enjoyed lobbying on Capitol Hill during L’Taken. Ethan holds a 3rd degree Black Belt in karate and of course, loves video games and listening to music! We would like to thank the Rabbi and the Cantor for helping Ethan prepare for his special day.

MEN'S CLUB

We had a wonderful evening at the Men's Club Comedy night honoring our Man and Woman of the Year: Steven Dachs & Ellen B. Holtzman. Here is Steve's great speech:

David Firstenberg,
Men's Club President
DavidFirstenberg@gmail.com

When I was asked to accept this honor the first thing that went through my mind is, "What do I say?" As a member for over two decades, the legacy Temple Beth El people have heard my stories over the years. One example is my parents founded the New City Jewish center; my father hired Rabbi Sossland so from the time I was 7 to 17, I mowed the rabbi's lawn as well as the temples - so I needed to come up with another story. As you can see, I was raised in a temple and being a member of a temple is woven into my DNA so I closed my eyes and thought what can I possibly say. It took all of 30 seconds for me to come up with an interesting story as how being a member of first Temple Beth El and now The Reform Temple of Rockland, has shown me a side of membership I had never thought about.

When I joined Temple Beth El, the first thing I did was join the Men's Club. I attended a few meetings in our library and met some of the most passionate men I have ever encountered. Each had his own ideas on how to accomplish what they were working on and these meetings to say the least were extremely lively, as each man wanted the best for our children. One day I received a phone call from the then current Men's Club President, he told me the next day was Installation for WRJ and we needed a Men's Club member to attend to support WRJ. I informed our President that I had a commitment to help a friend that evening, I couldn't make it to the services, but I could possibly make it to the oneg. However, I would be dressed in jeans and t-shirt, not acceptable in the sanctuary. He said that is was alright please go to the oneg and let people know you are there with the Men's Club supporting WRJ. I finished early and went over to temple and services were still going on. I looked into the sanctuary but felt uncomfortable entering in my casual attire. I noticed a man that I recognized from the Men's Club, he looked back at me with a stern look. When the services were over, he walked over to me, put his arm around my shoulder and asked why I hadn't come into services. I explained how I was dressed and how I really didn't know anyone. He said in an authoritative voice that is no excuse, you can attend a Shabbat services no matter how you are dressed. As far as not knowing anyone, if you see me or my wife Laura, you come and sit with us as you are now part of our family. I thought to myself, he used the word family. This wasn't the last time "you are family" was said to me.

I am going to jump ahead many years, my mom passed away in the winter of 2010 and as an observant Jew who had the Jewish guilt down before she passed, as her only son she put many requirements on what she wanted when she passed. She wanted me to have a Shiva minyan for a minimum of 3 days, wanted me to rip a shirt, pin on the black ribbon, cover mirrors in the house, don't shave, keep the candle lit, and say Kaddish for a year every morning. The funeral took place and afterwards people came back to my house, so many people came over to my house - my sisters asked me if I knew all these people, and I replied no I didn't. My two sisters and I were extremely moved and after the first minyan as people were leaving, they came up to me to give me a hug and to let me know their thoughts were with me. I thanked them and they all replied with the same words, we are family, this is what we do for each other in a time of need, there was that word again family. I remember my sisters saying, "This is so sweet, even people you don't know reached out to you and considered you family." Day two came and again so many people came over, and everyone was saying the same thing, "We are family and this is what we do for each other in times of need." Well it was February, there was a snow storm dropping two additional feet of snow on the two feet we already had. Not really knowing how I would be able to have a third minyan I was distraught. Around 4 PM, I received a call from my neighbor, our current President Adrian asking me my plans for the current night. I explained I would like to have a third Shiva minyan but can't see it happening. She asked me, "How many do you have?" (that is Jewish speak for how many people you have over 13 who can partake in a minyan). I replied, "I have myself, Nancy, my sister, and my oldest son Charles and my middle son Greg," as my other son was under 13. She told me, "I will make a few phone calls to people in the neighborhood and get a few more." My response was, "That is great but I still don't have anybody to lead," to which she responded, "No problem my son will lead." So, we made it to ten and were able to fulfill my mother's wishes. As Adrian was leaving, I thanked her for her help and she said, "That's what family does for family." Again, family.

As we all know, in 2007 the mortgage market crashed, as I owned my own mortgage company and was not a broker but a mortgage banker, I lost my company. Things were pretty bleak, it was so comforting to receive so many calls from temple members asking what they could do or how they could help out and this went on for a long time, people asking if our family needed anything. Each call using the same words - we're family and we're here for your family. This extended family started in the first few months I joined the temple, and has never stopped. A special thank you to Barry and Melissa Rosenblum who called so often asking if they could do anything.

My last example is when our two temples merged. I started to meet new people from the legacy Temple Beth Torah congregation and I found myself in a new building, with a new Rabbi, and a new cantor, but something wasn't new, the feeling again of family. I met so many sweet people, thru the temple Board, Men's Club, and different committees. Last fall, I arrived for a Men's Club meeting and as I walked in, I was approached by both David Firstenberg and Dr. Barry Schoenberg, who both asked me what was wrong, I explained I was having a medical problem, saying I was a bit scared. They asked me to share, saying we're family and we're here for you - again family. Barry had a close friend who was a doctor in this field and if I wanted, he would arrange for me to see him within 24 hours, I informed him I'm seeing someone who I felt comfortable with and thanked him. But he checked with his friend to get a second opinion and few months of emails, texts and phone calls began between us, him checking in with me, till I was well again.

We always say being a temple member gets you High Holy day tickets, use of the clergy for life cycle events, use of the clergy during the year when you need the guidance, (thank you Rabbi as I know I took more than my allotted time talking with you). Most important I would like to add that temple membership gets us a family you never knew you had - for the good, the not so good, and everything in between. Being a member of temple has hidden benefits that until you need your extended family; you never knew they existed; they are a true family.

WRJ/SISTERHOOD

It is very difficult to believe that we are coming to the end of our three year experience as Co-Presidents of WRJ/Sisterhood.

- Distribute Shaloch Manot boxes to congregation

Like all leadership positions there were many days spent in planning, organizing and creating events that brought fulfillment to ourselves and others. We are delighted to share that although there were some frustrations and failures, there were many more successes and joys.

The credit goes to our fabulous team of women who served on our Board of Directors. They were creative, inventive, and selfless in giving time to make things happen. Thank you ladies for making us look good!

A special thank you to Rabbi Sharff for supporting new ideas, to Cantor Neff for creating both craft classes and spiritual events, and to Susan Caminez for disseminating our information with remarkable accuracy and speed. Their support gave us the ability to keep moving forward.

We were delighted to share our Legacy Temple Sisterhood activities with the NEW RTR and excited to incorporate the activities created by our new sisters. Together we are the best example of the WRJ creed, "We are stronger together."

We are very proud of WRJ/Sisterhood of RTR! Listed are a few of the ways we contribute to making RTR a welcoming and joyful place to be:

We wish our successor, Jill Tanney, the joys we experienced and thank her to her taking the reigns.

Thank you to all for supporting us.

Your Sisters,
Jane Aronoff and Estelle Hans

VOLUNTEERING & OUTREACH

The Rhoda Bloom Kosher Food Pantry

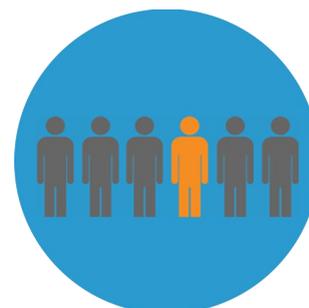

BARLEY IS THE NEW APPLE JUICE

RTR is now collecting bags of Barley for The Rhoda Bloom Kosher Food Pantry. While you're welcome to bring in bags of barley, the Social Action Committee encourages members to make donations to the Social Action Fund to help cover the cost of these donations.

Rockland Jewish Family Service works to alleviate hunger in our community through The Rhoda Bloom Kosher Food Pantry, which delivers kosher food to anyone in Rockland who is in need.

The Food Pantry currently feeds approximately 200 families in our community. One in six people goes hungry.

WHAT YOU MIGHT NOT KNOW: The Food Pantry doesn't serve only Kosher families, it serves ALL families in our community.

Upcoming Volunteer Days:
July 14, Aug 18, Sept 15

Volunteers are needed monthly. The shift starts at 8:45 AM and ends before noon.

Isn't it funny how just one little phone call or text can make your bad day suddenly wonderful?

Yahrzeit Callers Needed

Callers are needed to make a few (3-4) brief, weekly calls to remind people of the service schedule for their loved one's Yahrzeit. Names, relevant information and the script are provided weekly via email. You must have access to email to help with this project. If interested in helping, please email Jorie Sear at volunteer@RTRny.org.

Your help would be greatly appreciated!

Please Note: Any request for changes to Yahrzeit name readings made with the office will not be reflected in the reminder calls.

Compassionate Callers Needed

Some in our RTR family would love an occasional friendly phone call or visit. Let's do a mitzvah and show that we care for each other!

To volunteer, email Eva Steen:
Chesed@RTRny.org

VOLUNTEERING & OUTREACH

Assist Homeless Women

Donate unopened toiletries, sanitary napkins and tampons and women's sweat-pants (all sizes) for the women who are served by the Warming Center, Rockland's program to aid and shelter homeless Rocklanders. Kindly bring them to a WRJ/Sisterhood meeting or place them in either the collection bin outside the temple office or the one in the upstairs lobby. Thank you for your generosity and kindness.

Give Your Old Shoes a New Life!

WRJ/Sisterhood continues their fundraiser collecting used shoes which are "worn, but definitely not worn out!" Used shoes are in great demand in developing countries. Recycled shoes create jobs and fuel local economies. Please drop off pairs of men's, women's or children's shoes. Look for donation boxes in the upstairs lobby and downstairs entrance.

College Care Packages

Do you have a child in college? Please email the mailing address to RTR's College Chair, Ruth Schlanger, at rjs521@aol.com. RTR and the WRJ/Sisterhood want our college students to remain part of our family and will send them some surprises while they are away at college.

Center for Safety & Change

The Social Action Committee will be collecting NEW diapers, wipes, new and gently used clothing and SMALL baby items such as bibs, as well as school supplies for the Center for Safety & Change. Collection bins are available at RTR. This will be an ongoing effort. Please direct any questions to Lisa Fox at otlf@aol.com or 845-304-1669.

RTR is seeking volunteer drivers (21 or older) to provide transportation for congregants who are unable to drive themselves. If you will be coming to Friday or Saturday services or any events and have room in your car, please contact Susan Caminez, Executive Director, at (845) 358-2248 or Susan@RTRny.org to get matched up with someone in your area who might be in need of a ride. Your help would be greatly appreciated!

You Might Not Know....

That we now have spare reading glasses outside our sanctuary in various strengths as a courtesy in case you forget your pair. Simply borrow them and put them back in the basket before you leave.

Thank you, Larry Beck & Susan Silver!

TREE OF LIFE & YAHRZEIT PLAQUES

Honor or memorialize your loved one or an event. Forms are available through our Office by calling 845-358-2248 or by emailing: Marcy@RTRny.org.

MI SHEBEIRACH LIST

If you have names you would like to add or keep on the list, please email Marcy@RTRny.org or call 845-358-2248. Please let us know when a name can be removed.

YOUTH GROUP NEWS AND NOTES

Could it be that time of year again when we are counting the days until the end of school and the beginning of summer vacation? You bet it is!! While this time of year is a start to many great events to come, it also marks the end of others. One in particular is the end of the Youth Group year! From a Lower East Side Food Tour to bowling and from RTR Food Drive to Midnight Run and Helping Hands, to NFTY-GER Regional events, What a Year it's Been!!! There were many more activities as well. Many friendships were made and will hopefully be continued during the summer and into next year.

Lil' ReTRo
(Grades 3-5)

Upcoming events:

Sun, June 9: End-of-Year Pool Party

ReTweens
(Grades 6-8)

Upcoming events:

Sat, June 1: NFTY-GER Summer Send-Off (8th Graders) at NJ Shore-TBA
Sun, June 9: End-of-Year Pool Party

ReTRo
(Grades 9-12)

Upcoming events :

Sat, June 1: NFTY-GER Summer Send-Off (9-12th Graders) at NJ Shore-TBA
Sun, June 9: End-of-Year Pool Party

Our final event of this year will be our End-of-Year Pool Party on June 9!

Thanks so much to the Jay family for once again opening their backyard to us! Our 3rd-6th graders will swim from 12:00-2:00 and our 7th-12th graders will swim from 2:00-4:00! Pizza and snacks will be served!

The success of all of our Youth Groups is realized for many reasons. The primary reason is the children. We are very fortunate to have a dedicated group of children who have responded to the activities in a positive manner. The parents are a major contributor to the program's success. Their willingness to chaperone has added to the enjoyment and safety of the children at every event. We are grateful to RTR's clergy and staff for their support!

Our final thanks go to RTR's Men's Club and our very dedicated Youth Committee! Our Youth Groups would not exist without their guidance and financial support. Their programs and fundraisers are planned for the purpose of supporting our Temple's Youth Programs.

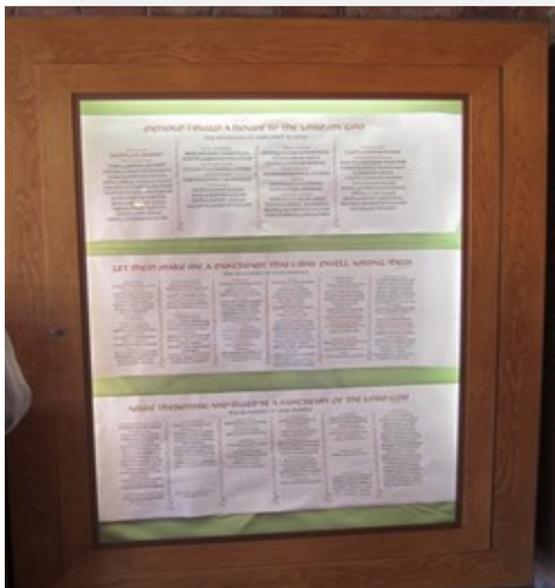

Information for next year will be coming your way soon! If you know of a Jewish child or teen who might be interested in joining us, please contact us and we will send them information! (They do not have to be RTR members or members of any temple – they simply have to be Jewish!). Membership in our Youth Groups is free for RTR members! A nominal registration rate is available for non-RTR members.

We wish all of you a wonderful summer and look forward to seeing old and new faces next year in Youth Group. As always, if you have any questions, please call us at the numbers below:

LET'S TALK ART

Located on the lower level and opposite the School Office we have added the original Parchment displays honoring the Builders of TBE's First and Second Temples to the TBE Donor Wall display that originally consisted of 14 wood panels 4' wide by 7' high totaling 56' long and now is a photographic depiction of that wall. We have also included a picture of how those Parchments were on display at TBE.

As displayed originally at TBE.
