FROM THE RABBI

July 27th – August 4th I will have the opportunity to once again serve as faculty at URJ's Camp Eisner. This will be my third summer serving as faculty at Eisner, and my fourth summer over all serving as a Rabbi at a URJ camp. I wish I could say that I had more summers under my belt, but during my time in Arizona, there were not any regional URJ camps. The closest was either in California or in Texas. For any of you familiar with the Southwest, that is a large area to cover. Then when I was in Baltimore, all of our congregation's children went to local legacy camps. They simply were not interested in attending Camp Harlam in Pennsylvania.

That being said, I love Reform Camping. I myself am the product of the URJ's Greene Family Camp in scenic Bruceville, TX. I spent every summer in the 80s as a camper. I went on my first Israel trip with them. I attended many NFTY events at their facility, and I later served as a counselor, Unit Head, life guard, song leader, and Unit Educator there throughout the 90s and 2000s.

As one of only two Jewish kids in my school district growing up, it was important for me to have a place where I could live without having to either explain or justify my Judaism. Everyone else at camp was just like me. I loved the songs, the games, the sports, the swimming, the smores, the chicken fried steak for Shabbat brunch, the songs, the services, the horseback riding, the songs, and so much more. The more I think about it, camp played a huge role in my journey to ultimately become a rabbi.

I am now so pleased to be able to pass this tradition on to my children. Both Emily and Noah will now be at Eisner for their third summer (Noah's second as an overnight camper). Noah is also seriously considering the URJ's Six-Points Sci-Tech camp for next summer as part of his camping experience as the URJ now offers specialty camps not only for Sci-Tech but also for sports, as well as their new creative arts camp.

URJ Camping has been around 1952 when the now Olin-Sang-Ruby was first opened in Oconomowoc, WI. It has played a vital role in the lives of our Jewish youth ever since then. There are now 15 URJ Camps with several more URJ congregational camps available as well. I have had the pleasure of experiencing not only Eisner and Greene but also Henry S. Jacobs Camp in Mississippi, Crane Lake Camp (Eisner's sister camp), Olin-Sang-Ruby, Kutz (z"l), Harlam, Coleman, and probably our most scenic camp: Kalsman in Washington State. All of them are committed to creating safe, meaningful, wonderful, joyous, and genuine Reform Jewish experiences.

And though by the time this article is published summer will be wrapping up, I would encourage you, if you have children or grandchildren or friends with the same who might be remotely interested in overnight camping for next summer, to speak to myself or Brad. We also have information on our local Jewish non-URJ day camps in the area as well. It is the experience of the lifetime. I speak from experience for I know this because it has changed my life and my kids' lives for the better.

B'Shalom,

Rabbi Benjamin Sharff

Shabbat and holiday services may be seen live at www.RTRny.org/live

A big thanks to Rabbi Sharff for performing a heartwarming Baby Naming ceremony for our granddaughter, Cassidy Rose Shoshana.

Cassidy's parents, Danielle and Colin Andersen, were overjoyed by the warmth of the service and the Rabbi's kind words to the whole family. We are grateful to the Rabbi for taking the time to come to our home and help us celebrate this wonderful occasion. What a great blessing to have a Rabbi who provides this service to our congregation.

With everyone’s participation we will succeed in providing tuition free quality Jewish education to the children in our congregation! Together we can do this!

FROM THE PRESIDENT

Our installation of the Board of Trustees members took place in June at Shabbat services. For those of you who could not join us, I want to reiterate what I said. They are heartfelt words I want to share with you.

I want to congratulate and welcome our new Board of Trustees members, Janice Bergman, Matt Fleissig and Warren Samuels. I look forward to working jointly with you as well as those members continuing. For those members moving on, Joanna Landau and Steve Dachs, it was a pleasure working with both of you. Joanna, your guidance and experience helped me acclimate better to my new position. Your contributions at our Board of Trustees meetings as well as sitting on the Executive Committee as a liaison to the board, were very welcomed. Steve, your love and support of RTR is beyond words. Your contributions, commitment and involvement knows no limit. Jane Aronoff, Co-President of WRJ, also leaves us as her term of office is complete. Both the Board of Trustees and WRJ were lucky to have you on its boards. You were a great asset to both, bringing your ideas and suggestions to them. We welcome Jill Tanney as the new WRJ President. The role of the Board and its members is critical to a successful RTR.

We have exciting plans moving forward. We are continuing our restoration of our building to make it fresh. The improvements are in the areas of security, safety and aesthetics. We are hoping to complete many of the projects over the summer before the High Holy Days, weather permitting.

Our Education Campaign has had a very positive response from our congregation. Our Religious school is the beneficiary of this generous support. We look forward to the sound of laughter and excitement from our children in the halls. If you have not participated in this campaign yet, it's not too late. If you have, thank you! Please contact Barry Schoenberg, Eva Steen or Cathy Klein. They would be happy to hear from you.

As you know the demographics in Rockland County continue to change. It is incumbent upon you to reach out and invite your friends to come try us out. We can not only count on our legacy members but need the young families to build on. There are other possible ideas that were brought up at the Congregational Meeting to help build and make Reform Judaism in Rockland County remain strong. Those avenues will be looked into as well. Anyone interested in joining our Membership Committee to help build our congregation and future, we would be happy to have you.

We have concluded new contracts with Rabbi Sharff and Brad Zicholtz, Director of Congregational Learning. Our Senior Professional Staff are secured for the next few years. We all benefit from the continuity of their service. They each bring their positive skills to our congregation.

Our budget reflects the input of all the Committee Chairs with the oversight and advice of our Finance Committee. We actively monitor both the revenue and expenditure sides throughout the year. We are constantly looking at new avenues to expand the revenue side of our budget, in an attempt to reduce dues increases.

The best way to predict our future is to create it. Thank you to Abraham Lincoln for his wise words. Let us not dwell in the past, do not dream of the future but concentrate on the present to get us there. The most important way for us to achieve success is to have faith in RTR. I know we can succeed, even if we make mistakes along the way. We will embrace them and move forward. We have a plan, we have goals, and each small step forward is positive.

Enjoy this month of August, as summer goes by very quickly. The new school year and the High Holy Days will be here before we know it.

B'Shalom,

Adrian Modansky, President

FROM BRAD ZICHOLTZ, DIRECTOR OF CONGREGATIONAL LEARNING

New Educational Options this Year to Get Excited About!

In the Talmud, two great Rabbis are posed a question, which is greater, study or action? Rabbi Tarfon answered, saying: Action is greater. Rabbi Akiva answered, saying: "Study is greater than action because it leads to action." Aaron Dorfman of AJWS responds by saying, "The answer is that study not only leads us to action, it leads us through action. Study offers us guidelines for what kind of action to take." In other words, we do good in the world, not just because they are good but because as Jews, it is our obligation.

For our teens, we are unveiling a brand new Academy Program for grades 8-12. The main focus of the program will be based around Jewish values; not just learning them but living them as well. For example, we will learn about the Jewish value of V'ahavta Lareyecha Kamocha, "Love Your Neighbor as Yourself." We will spend several weeks exploring the value, focusing on poverty and even hearing from a guest speaker. We will then head into NYC to participate in the Midnight Run to deliver food, clothing, and conversation to the homeless. Each month we will focus on a different Jewish value which will culminate in a service learning experience.

We are hoping to conclude the year with an overnight service learning trip for all of our Academy students. For our 10th grade students they will go, as always, to the incredible L'takein Seminar with the Religious Action Center in Washington D.C. There, they will learn about issues up for vote in congress, the Jewish values inherent in those bills, and then lobby their congressperson or Senator. At the end of the year, our 10th graders will become confirmands, affirming their commitment to Judaism to our entire community.

For our adults, we have two new, very exciting programs. We are offering a weekly Hebrew class on Sunday mornings for those who wish to learn or improve on their Hebrew reading and comprehension. We are also offering a once a month Adult B'nei Mitzvah class for those in our congregation who never became a Bar/Bat Mitzvah in their life and wish to now. This class will be led by Rabbi Sharff, Cantor Neff, and myself. It will culminate in a B'nei Mitzvah ceremony in the Spring of 2021. Please contact me at Brad@RTRny.org to sign up or get more information.

Have a great rest of the summer!

L'shalom,

Brad Zicholtz

Bat Mitzvah Project

Call to Action

My name is Emily Sharff and in November I will be called up to the Torah as a Bat Mitzvah. For my Mitzvah project, I will be knitting scarves and hats for the Center for Safety & Change. The Center for Safety & Change is a local organization that works to combat gender-based violence as well as provide shelter and support for survivors of domestic violence. My project would help provide scarves and hats for victims and for children, some of whom may also be victims. Therefore the hats and scarves can be both in adult and child sized.

To be able to provide as many hats and scarves as possible, I would greatly appreciate your help with knitting as well. For those of you who like to knit, there will be a donation bin located in the RTR lobby for any scarves and hats you wish to donate. Thank you for your help for this important cause. I look forward to seeing you at my Bat Mitzvah.

VOLUNTEERING & OUTREACH

The Rhoda Bloom Kosher Food Pantry

BARLEY IS THE NEW APPLE JUICE

RTR is now collecting bags of Barley for The Rhoda Bloom Kosher Food Pantry. While you're welcome to bring in bags of barley, the Social Action Committee encourages members to make donations to the Social Action Fund to help cover the cost of these donations.

Rockland Jewish Family Service works to alleviate hunger in our community through The Rhoda Bloom Kosher Food Pantry, which delivers kosher food to anyone in Rockland who is in need.

The Food Pantry currently feeds approximately 200 families in our community. One in six people goes hungry.

WHAT YOU MIGHT NOT KNOW: The Food Pantry doesn't serve only Kosher families, it serves ALL families in our community.

Upcoming Volunteer Days:
Aug 18, Sept 15, Oct 20

Volunteers are needed monthly. The shift starts at 8:45 AM and ends before noon.

Isn't it funny how just one little phone call or text can make your bad day suddenly wonderful?

Yahrzeit Callers Needed

Callers are needed to make a few (3-4) brief, weekly calls to remind people of the service schedule for their loved one's Yahrzeit. Names, relevant information and the script are provided weekly via email. You must have access to email to help with this project. If interested in helping, please email Jorie Sear at volunteer@RTRny.org.

Your help would be greatly appreciated!

Please Note: Any request for changes to Yahrzeit name readings made with the office will not be reflected in the reminder calls.

Compassionate Callers Needed

Some in our RTR family would love an occasional friendly phone call or visit. Let's do a mitzvah and show that we care for each other!

To volunteer, email Eva Steen:
Chesed@RTRny.org

VOLUNTEERING & OUTREACH

Assist Homeless Women

Donate unopened toiletries, sanitary napkins and tampons for the women who are served by the Warming Center, Rockland's program to aid and shelter homeless Rocklanders. Kindly bring them to a WRJ/Sisterhood meeting or place them in either the collection bin outside the temple office or the one in the upstairs lobby. Thank you for your generosity and kindness.

Give Your Old Shoes a New Life!

WRJ/Sisterhood continues their fundraiser collecting used shoes which are "worn, but definitely not worn out!" Used shoes are in great demand in developing countries. Recycled shoes create jobs and fuel local economies. Please drop off pairs of men's, women's or children's shoes. Look for donation boxes in the upstairs lobby and downstairs entrance.

College Care Packages

Do you have a child in college? Please email the mailing address to RTR's College Chair, Ruth Schlanger, at rjs521@aol.com. RTR and the WRJ/Sisterhood want our college students to remain part of our family and will send them some surprises while they are away at college.

Center for Safety & Change

Social Action will now be collecting items for women of domestic and sexual abuse and donating them to the Center for Safety & Change. Please help by bringing in the following items in all sizes: NEW sweatpants, NEW plain tee-shirts without writing and NEW flip flops. Thank you in advance for your support. Please direct any questions to Martha Siegel at mrsiegel48@gmail.com.

RTR is seeking volunteer drivers (21 or older) to provide transportation for congregants who are unable to drive themselves. If you will be coming to Friday or Saturday services or any events and have room in your car, please contact Susan Caminez, Executive Director, at (845) 358-2248 or Susan@RTRny.org to get matched up with someone in your area who might be in need of a ride. Your help would be greatly appreciated!

You Might Not Know....

That we now have spare reading glasses outside our sanctuary in various strengths as a courtesy in case you forget your pair. Simply borrow them and put them back in the basket before you leave.

Thank you, Larry Beck & Susan Silver!

PLEASE HELP US MAKE A MINYAN! Saturday morning Shabbat services take place downstairs and begin at 10:30 AM on Saturday mornings. Please join us and help us make a minyan. Reminder: Yahrzeits can be observed on a Saturday morning, not only on a Friday night. All names are read again on Saturday.

RTR's Kashrut Policy:

(Any party renting or using the Temple facilities must comply with this policy.)

Helpful Deadline Information & Guidelines

- WEEKLY (Wednesdays): e-Connections Deadline: 3:00 PM Tuesday

Our weekly email, "e-Connections," goes out to our distribution list every Wednesday. This communication is for upcoming events and important announcements only. It is intended to be a short (two-page max.) newsletter; it is not intended to run repetitive flyers or announcements (i.e., Soul Mates shoe collection). Text will be limited and graphics will be small. Flyers will be linked.

Please note: stand-alone e-blasts are primarily for life cycle events.

- WEEKLY (Fridays): Erev Shabbat Services Handout Deadline: 10:00 AM Friday

Each Friday, we prepare the Yahrzeit and Mi Shebeirach lists for the Shabbat Services handout. If there are any changes/additions to these lists, please notify the RTR Office by 10 AM on Friday. Changes/additions made after the deadline will be communicated to clergy and appropriately read, but the handout will not be changed.

- MONTHLY: Connections Deadline: 10th of the Prior Month (Ex: Dec 10th for Jan)

Each month, we produce a bulletin that is mailed to homes and businesses. Entries are due in the Office by the 10th of the month for inclusion in the following month's bulletin. This communication is intended for ongoing events, flyers, news, articles, and announcements.

Submission Guidelines: Please submit your own flyers. Be sure to include a date, time, location, description and contact person. We accept all formats. All of the above information can be emailed to Susan@RTRny.org.
