FROM THE RABBI

For my November article, I would like to further the conversation on my Yom Kippur morning sermon on antisemitism. For those who were unable to attend, or would like to read it again, it is available on the home page of our website: www.rtrny.org.

The books I referenced were: Antisemitism: Here and Now by Deborah Lipstadt and How to Fight Anti-Semitism by Bari Weiss. There is also a third book that I did not reference which is Rising Out of Hatred: The Awakening of a Former White Nationalist by Eli Saslow. The story is about Derek Black. He was at the heart of the white nationalist movement as his father founded Stormfront, a large racist and antisemitic online community. While attending college, Derek's beliefs were challenged, including by some Jews who kept inviting him to Shabbat dinners. Ultimately Derek disavowed his past and his past beliefs in a radical transformation. It is a fascinating and disturbing read that provides insight into the white nationalist movement.

However, for those who would like to take a deep dive into the history of antisemitism, one of my 'favorite' books is Constantine's Sword: The Church and the Jews by James Carroll. It is an excellent resource and it really helps frame the evolution and history of antisemitism. All of these books are available from most book sellers.

I also want to mention a few resources one can support with the fight against antisemitism. I mentioned the Anti-Defamation League as well as our congregation and the Federation that is combating local antisemitism almost on a daily basis through the CRC (Community Relations Council). We can support both the local and national Holocaust Museums who are not only combatting antisemitism but providing tremendous amounts of educational opportunities for schools. There are lots of online resources but be sure to double check who is providing the information. Some of it is helpful (such as the ADL.org), while other sites, not so much. In regards to counteracting what is happening on college campuses, the Louis D. Brandeis Center has some excellent resources. We can support Hillel as well as AIPAC and JNF. These organizations are doing important work on campuses as well.

The most questions and comments I received following my sermon on antisemitism was not about the greater world, but concerning our ultra-Orthodox neighbors. As I mentioned, I am no expert, and many of you have an abundance of stories and frustrations to share. To each of you, I do not disagree. There are many problems and challenges. I, for one, am involved with several organizations working on issues relating to the Ultra-Orthodox. One is Yaffed, which is an organization fighting to get New York State to enforce educational mandates in Yeshivas. I will be serving on their rabbinical council. Our first meeting is scheduled for this month, and I am hoping to attend.

I am also involved with Rockland Clergy for Social Justice. This organization was formed to tackle the issues relating to the East Ramapo School District. Much has been accomplished, but there is a long way to go. There have also been preliminary meetings through the Holocaust Center to try to get more interactions between the progressive and some of the ultra-Orthodox communities. It is slow going, and I am not sure if it will get anywhere, but I did want to let you know, we are trying.

Again, I am not justifying actions done by members of the various ultra-Orthodox communities. The lack of oversight and accountability has certainly been detrimental to the larger Rockland Community. But what we cannot do is let antisemitic tropes rule the day when it comes to these issues.

Antisemitism is growing around the world and in New York. I did not even get into the issue of antisemitism among the radical Muslim communities which Bari Weiss discusses in much greater detail in her book. What I do know is that there are resources available to us, we have each other, and we have the larger Jewish community. Fighting antisemitism starts with us.

I hope the Yom Kippur Morning sermon and this article is less fearful and more an exploration of opportunities for action. As always, my door is open, and I am happy to discuss with you, your thoughts and concerns.

B'Shalom,

Rabbi Benjamin Sharff

FROM THE PRESIDENT

As I begin to think about a topic to write about this month, the Thanksgiving holiday comes to mind. At the end of the month on November 28, we will be sitting with family and/or friends to celebrate what we are thankful and grateful for. The dictionary defines gratitude as a thankful appreciation for what an individual receives, whether tangible or intangible. With gratitude, people acknowledge the goodness in their lives. Expressing gratitude will make you a happier person. It can provide an immediate boost of happiness. Thanksgiving is as much about gratitude as it is about eating turkey, potatoes and cranberry sauce. We will be eating home cooked foods, and sharing conversations of thanks to G-d. In the Torah, gratitude is an integral part of one's spiritual life.

When we think about what we are grateful for, we become conscious of how much we really have in our lives and feel enriched. It is also a good habit to encourage in our children. It is important not only to encourage them to say thank you, but to help them become aware of what they have in their lives. This way they can form a lifelong habit of appreciating what they are grateful for. Being thankful needs to be a regular habit and happen more than once a year at Thanksgiving. We can nurture this feeling in ourselves as well. Stop and think about all you have and all of the blessings you have enjoyed.

Every day we are given the gift of Judaism. I am grateful to be a Jew today for so many reasons. Family in Judaism is a top priority, and gives us clarity to put our relationships first. It creates a safe and warm environment. My family keeps growing and I am truly thankful for this. Miracles are everywhere and occur everyday. The Jewish world lives in them, as well as myself in my daily life. Community celebrates both joyous and sad occasions together. Sharing in conversations, meals, volunteerism, and helping one another is a beautiful thing. The Reform Temple of Rockland is our community and family. We are here for each other at all times. We celebrate and support all our congregants in any situation needed. Shabbat which occurs every week, allows us to start fresh and renews our strength. It gives us time to put our lives in perspective and reminds us how incredible creation is.

I am happy that my family and I traveled to Israel. We celebrated Matthew's (our middle son) bar mitzvah on top of Masada, with about 10 families who also had children celebrating their b'nei mitzvah. We toured much of this magnificent country. Israel is a precious gift to all Jews. Whether there or not, it is near and dear to all our hearts. Jerusalem is beautiful with the reminders of our history all around you as well as all of the modern achievements, cities, landscapes and mountains. All this comprise a wonderful country. Israel is a home we can return to at any given time.

A few quotes I came across, I thought would shine some light for you.

"I am thankful for the mess to clean up after a party, because it means that I have been blessed by family and friends."

"I am thankful for the clothes that fit a little snug, because it means I have enough food to eat."

"I am thankful for a lawn that needs mowing, windows that need cleaning, and gutters that need repair, because it means I have a home."

"I am thankful for my large heating bill as it means I am warm."

"I am thankful for the alarm that goes off every morning, because it means I have another day in front of me."

A few questions to ask yourself:

What are the things you feel thankful or grateful for?

How can we appreciate ourselves and those around us more?

How can we show gratitude?

If we all look at our lives, we can all find many things to be thankful and grateful for. As Robert and I and our family welcome Jacob Albert our new grandson into our family, I know just how thankful and grateful we are.

Enjoy the upcoming Thanksgiving holiday.

B'Shalom,

Adrian Modansky, President
President@rtrny.org

FROM BRAD ZICHOLTZ, DIRECTOR OF CONGREGATIONAL LEARNING

On October 6, we tried something new. In an effort to build community here at RTR and amongst our Religious School families, we created family programming so that families and kids could meet each other.

Joining a Temple has many facets to it besides getting a Jewish education for your child. Finding community among others is something that is so important in Judaism. Rabbi Hillel says in Pirke Avot, "Do not separate yourself from the community." Nothing in Judaism suggests we are to be alone. From the entire community expected to come to a bris to a minyan to making shiva calls, without community Judaism cannot exist.

So back on October 6, thirty-eight Religious School students and parents got together, picked apples, went on a hayride, and picked pumpkins. Thank you to Robin Conduluci who led and helped facilitate this incredible community gathering. We will continue these events throughout the year including bowling on November 17 and the Star Wars Shabbat on December 21.

A long time ago in a galaxy far, far away...
Star Wars Shabbat

On December 21, we will be having a very special Star Wars themed Shabbat service, having lunch, and then heading to see the new movie, Star Wars - The Rise of Skywalker. Keep an eye out for an email with the sign up form.

NOVEMBER B'NEI MITZVAH

Olivia Stone

November 2, 2019

I will be called to the Torah as a Bat Mitzvah on November 2, 2019. I am a 7th grader and High Honor Roll student at Nyack Middle School. For my Mitzvah Project, I started an Environmental Club there. I like drawing, reading, writing, listening to music, and hanging out with my friends. I also play field hockey.

Thank you to everyone who helped me get ready for my Bat Mitzvah!

Emily Sharff

November 23, 2019

Hello my name is Emily. I live in Valley Cottage with my parents and my two younger brothers Noah and Alex. We have been members of RTR for the past four years, and I am now a madrichah for the second grade.

I am in seventh grade at Tuxedo Park School. Some of my favorite classes are math and English. I also play defense for my field hockey team.

For my mitzvah project, I am knitting hats to donate to the Center for Safety and Change. If you also like to knit, I have left a donation box next to the office. We are collecting hats and scarves. In my free time I enjoy playing piano, reading, and spending time with my friends. I am very excited for my Bat Mitzvah and hope you will join me in celebrating it on November 23!

Elliot Kleinman

November 30, 2019

Hi! My name is Elliot Kleinman and I am an 8th grade student at Felix Festa Middle School. You might know my parents Aaron and Michelle Kleinman and I also have a brother named Jordan who is fifteen years old and attends Clarkstown South High School. I have a cat- Fe-lini who is eight years old and is always fun to play with.

My favorite sport is baseball. I first started baseball when I was 4 years old playing tee ball at West Nyack Little League. I continued to move up in Little League and now play travel baseball. One thing about travel baseball is that I love is going to tournaments. This past summer I had the opportunity to play in Cooperstown which is one of the biggest tournaments in America. This experience I will never forget, hitting two homes and when I pitched I struck out twelve batters. I will continue with baseball for as long as I can working to get better every day.

I enjoy spending time with my grandparents who have and continue to support me in all of my efforts. It's always fun spending time with them and my cousins. Thanksgiving is my favorite holiday as it combines food, family, and football.

For my Bar Mitzvah project I am collecting and donating new and gently used sports equipment, such as floor hockey sticks, gloves, bats and tennis rackets for the Spring Valley Salvation Army after school program. I also volunteer at the Rhoda Bloom Food Pantry whenever I can. If you would like to donate any sports equipment, please call 845-641-6961 or e-mail Michelle Kleinman at Appleadaymk@gmail.com.

Thank you to Rabbi Sharff for helping me learn and grow in Judaism. Thank you to Cantor Neff and Cantor Dunkerley for teaching me how to chant Hebrew. I would like to thank everyone who has helped me become a Bar Mitzvah it means so much to me.

MEN'S CLUB

My family had a most enjoyable holiday season, I hope your family did as well. I was most impressed by all the shofar blowers who lined up on the bima to make sure we heard that haunting call. But we are commanded not to just hear the sound of the shofar but to HARKEN to the call of the shofar.

For me that haunting sound has been one of the forces that has kept me involved in my Jewish community these past 45 years, and keeps me involved today as your Men's Club President.

Men's Club is a vital and integral part of our temple community. We provide fellowship for the men of the congregation as well as support of our youth, by supporting both Youth Group and Religious School events. Men's Club supports the congregation in general by providing Friday night onegs along with WRJ/Sisterhood.

Men's Club wants to be there for you, we want to harken to your call. What can we do for you? In the past, our legacy Men's Clubs have supported soft ball teams, we run a Comedy Night and a Golf Outing. What more would you like to see? We will harken to your needs if you will harken to ours.

The current two year term of all Officers and Trustees of the RTR Men's Club expires this June. Some Officers and Trustees will want to remain and continue their involvement, while others have heard a different call. This is your time to step up, it is an open invitation for you to make sure our commitment to our Temple continues.

If you are interested in becoming a member of the RTR Men's Club Board please send a letter to me at the temple. Mark it "ATTN DAVID FIRSTENBERG" OR send me a e-mail at Davidfirstenberg@gmail.com hoping to hear from you.

All Supporters of Temple Youth:

Please consider joining Men's Club. Men's Club's main purpose is to support youth programming. Your dues and the other funds Men's Club raises throughout the year go toward the Youth Group and other youth-related activities. We also support Jewish education, including the RTR Religious School. We also have some fun helping with the Purim carnival, barbecues, and breakfasts. There are enjoyable events during the year such as comedy night, the golf outing, and baseball games. Please be a mensch and use the application form below to join or renew your membership. Thank you for your support!

WRJ/SISTERHOOD

Autumn is here and so are some wonderful activities from your sisters at WRJ. The big event of the month is our Fall Brunch and Boutique on November 17 at 10 AM. Come and meet new members and greet old friends and family. We wish to thank Sally Marvin, our programming chair, for gathering the vendors offering a variety of gifts for the holidays. Sally has also arranged outside activities including an upcoming pre-Chanukah chocolate event in December, see the flyer below. Be on the lookout for more exciting opportunities from Sally and her support crew. Remember, we are a sisterhood and sisters help each other.

Speaking of sisters who help each other, are you aware of all that goes into the Theater group? Eadie Kanchuger leads a group of women who order, prepare and distribute tickets for shows during the year. Membership in the theater group has been closed for this season, but tickets are sometimes available due to changes in our members' schedules. So far this fall, we have seen Tootsie and To Kill A Mockingbird. For further information please contact Eadie at: eadiek@optonline.net. Barbara Gross is the coordinator for the buses for the plays, and must be thanked for arranging our transportation. Did you know that there are over 200 people attending each of these shows? Yes, it is a big task and Eadie and all of the helpers receive our continued thanks.

Our December meeting will include treasured memories. Bring a treasured memory to share. It could be related to a family or personal object, or just a tale of time and place. We would love to have you share with us on December 5 at 7:30 PM before our board meeting. No RSVP necessary.

For all of the readers in the group – please be aware that we are co-hosting a book discussion with Adult Ed on January 7 at 6:30 PM. The book is Button Man by Andrew Gross. Please bring your dinner so that we can chat and eat together. This is an early notice so that you can plan to access the book via the library, buy the book, find it on kindle or listen to an audio version. It is about Andrew's grandfather and family, and gives us an inside look at some of the Jewish gangsters in New York City.

Wishing you and your families a Happy Thanksgiving!

VOLUNTEERING & OUTREACH

The Rhoda Bloom Kosher Food Pantry

KOSHER BARLEY

RTR is collecting bags of Barley for The Rhoda Bloom Kosher Food Pantry. While you're welcome to bring in bags of barley, the Social Action Committee encourages members to make donations to the Social Action Fund to help cover the cost of these donations.

Rockland Jewish Family Service works to alleviate hunger in our community through The Rhoda Bloom Kosher Food Pantry, which delivers kosher food to anyone in Rockland who is in need.

The Food Pantry currently feeds approximately 200 families in our community. One in six people goes hungry.

WHAT YOU MIGHT NOT KNOW: The Food Pantry doesn't serve only Kosher families, it serves ALL families in our community.

Upcoming Volunteer Days:
Nov 17, Dec 8

Volunteers are needed monthly. The shift starts at 8:45 AM and ends before noon.

Isn't it funny how just one little phone call or text can make your bad day suddenly wonderful?

Yahrzeit Callers Needed

Callers are needed to make a few (3-4) brief, weekly calls to remind people of the service schedule for their loved one's Yahrzeit. Names, relevant information and the script are provided weekly via email. You must have access to email to help with this project. If interested in helping, please email Jorie Sear at volunteer@RTRny.org.

Your help would be greatly appreciated!

Please Note: Any request for changes to Yahrzeit name readings made with the office will not be reflected in the reminder calls.

Compassionate Callers Needed

Some in our RTR family would love an occasional friendly phone call or visit. Let's do a mitzvah and show that we care for each other!

To volunteer, email Eva Steen:
Chesed@RTRny.org

VOLUNTEERING & OUTREACH

Center for Safety & Change

Social Action will now be collecting items for women of domestic and sexual abuse and donating them to the Center for Safety & Change. Please help by bringing in the following items in all sizes: NEW sweatpants, NEW plain tee-shirts without writing and NEW flip flops. Thank you in advance for your support. Please direct any questions to Martha Siegel at mrsiegel48@gmail.com.

Give Your Old Shoes a New Life!

WRJ/Sisterhood continues their fundraiser collecting used shoes which are "worn, but definitely not worn out!" Used shoes are in great demand in developing countries. Recycled shoes create jobs and fuel local economies. Please drop off pairs of men's, women's or children's shoes. Look for donation boxes in the upstairs lobby and downstairs entrance.

College Care Packages

Do you have a child in college? Please email the mailing address to RTR's College Chair, Ruth Schlanger, at rjs521@aol.com. RTR and the WRJ/Sisterhood want our college students to remain part of our family and will send them some surprises while they are away at college.

Rockland Warming Center

You can help Rockland homeless by volunteering only a few hours of your time. All you need to do is bring some store bought desserts, serve dinner and have fun. The Warming Center is staffed by a manager and security personnel. Meals are provided by a local caterer. Volunteer time is 6:00-9:00 PM. If you're interested, have questions, or ready to sign up—contact Barbara Wilen at Barbwilen@live.com or call 845-596-5061.

This year's dates are:

Nov 7 & 21, Dec 12, Jan 9 & 23, Feb 6 & 27, Mar 6 and Apr 30

RTR is seeking volunteer drivers (21 or older) to provide transportation for congregants who are unable to drive themselves. If you will be coming to Friday or Saturday services or any events and have room in your car, please contact Susan Caminez, Executive Director, at (845) 358-2248 or Susan@RTRny.org to get matched up with someone in your area who might be in need of a ride. Your help would be greatly appreciated!

You Might Not Know....

That we now have spare reading glasses outside our sanctuary in various strengths as a courtesy in case you forget your pair. Simply borrow them and put them back in the basket before you leave.

Thank you, Larry Beck & Susan Silver!

Holiday Gift Card Drive

SOCIALACTION

Donate $25 Gift Cards from the following businesses or send in a check made payable to WRJ and they will purchase gift cards on your behalf.

TARGET

ShopRite®

CVS

Walgreens

For the month of December the Social Action Committee and WRJ/Sisterhood ask you to help bring some love and light into someone's holiday season by collecting gift cards ($25 in value) for adults 18 years of age and older who are receiving services from the Rockland County Department of Social Services (DSS). The cards allow the adults to feel remembered at the holiday season and retain their dignity by ensuring personal choice on how the funds are spent (with input from DSS).

These are individuals:

- with mental or physical impairments who cannot provide for their basic need for food, clothing or shelter
- who need to protect themselves from neglect, abuse or hazardous conditions

October and November Winter Coat Drive

For the months of October and November, RTR's Social Action Committee will be collecting:

CLEAN, gently used child and adult-sized coats & NEW hats, gloves and scarves.

Items will be collected in bins or on racks in both lobbies.

Collected items will be donated to People to People and Rockland Action Partnership.

Thank you in advance for your support.

Helpful Deadline Information & Guidelines

- WEEKLY (Wednesdays): e-Connections Deadline: 3:00 PM Tuesday

Our weekly email, "e-Connections," goes out to our distribution list every Wednesday. This communication is for upcoming events and important announcements only. It is intended to be a short (two-page max.) newsletter; it is not intended to run repetitive flyers or announcements (i.e., Soul Mates shoe collection). Text will be limited and graphics will be small. Flyers will be linked.

Please note: stand-alone e-blasts are primarily for life cycle events.

- WEEKLY (Fridays): Erev Shabbat Services Handout Deadline: 10:00 AM Friday

Each Friday, we prepare the Yahrzeit and Mi Shebeirach lists for the Shabbat Services handout. If there are any changes/additions to these lists, please notify the RTR Office by 10 AM on Friday. Changes/additions made after the deadline will be communicated to clergy and appropriately read, but the handout will not be changed.

- MONTHLY: Connections Deadline: 10th of the Prior Month (Ex: Dec 10th for Jan)

Each month, we produce a bulletin that is mailed to homes and businesses. Entries are due in the Office by the 10th of the month for inclusion in the following month's bulletin. This communication is intended for ongoing events, flyers, news, articles, and announcements.

Submission Guidelines: Please submit your own flyers. Be sure to include a date, time, location, description and contact person. We accept all formats. All of the above information can be emailed to Susan@RTRny.org.
