FROM THE RABBI

Given the rise of anti-semitic attacks and the incredibly polarizing political environment, I struggle with the appropriateness of writing a tongue-in-cheek article in commemoration of the holiday of Purim. Two years ago, I decided to write about the history and traditions surrounding the purim spiel, whereas last year, I returned my practice of focusing on my candidacy for the Presidency of the United States of New York. I made a lot of promises, some of which I promise to keep promising.

All kidding aside, this examination of recent events gets to the larger question of the appropriate use of humor as a reflection of the times as opposed to an escape. In Judaism we clearly have a tradition of both of these. Though, for the most part, we find humor tends to be more topical and satirical than simply observational. There is also a strong tradition of gallows humor especially during times of suffering and persecution which can be found before, during, and after the Holocaust.

We like to think of Jewish humor as part of our people's eternal existence. For example, the Torah tells us of Sarah laughing when she heard the news she was going to become pregnant at her old age and bear a son. This is why she named Isaac, Yitzhak, or to laugh. The Talmud also has some witty give and take as well. However, Jewish humor, as we know it, really came to the forefront of the Jewish experience in the 19th century.

Yiddish in particular is filled with ideas and maxims and we can find numerous tales of the Wise men (and women) of Chelm. Much of our humor tends to be of the self-deprecating variety, perhaps as a way to disarm our enemies, which gets us back to the story of Purim.

As I mentioned a couple of years ago, scholars vigorously debate the veracity of the Book of Esther. What they do agree upon is that the first versions of the narrative only date back to the 2nd Century B.C.E. The first observances of the festival were noted in the 2nd Century C.E, but the purim spiel, as we know it, did not take its form until the nineteenth century. Nowadays the purim spiel is filled with mirth, irreverence and inappropriate humor. It is as if we are being reminded that sometimes when we have faced hatred and persecution, laughter may not be the best response, but it is certainly a way to help us cope.

In this tumultuous season, let us gather together, even if for just one evening and/or one morning to forget about our troubles, and laugh. Or as the Jerusalem Talmud teaches, "God's spirit rests on one who has a joyous heart."

In the meantime, please join us for our Family Purim spiel Scooby Doo and Carnival on Sunday, March 8 and our Purim Cocktail Hour and Adult Purimspiel Guys and Dolls on Monday, March 9.

I promise to get to work on my campaign promises for next year, you have my word, which is as good as all of my other campaign promises. It is essential I keep up my chops for the campaign trail, for as we know, it's always an election season except when it's a season leading up to an election ... sigh.

B'Shalom,

Rabbi Benjamin Sharff

FROM THE PRESIDENT

In the month of March we join together to celebrate Purim. It is celebrated annually according to the Hebrew calendar on the 14th day of the Hebrew month of Adar. This year it begins on Monday evening March 9th and goes through Tuesday, March 10th. Here at The Reform Temple of Rockland we have many celebrations planned. All are welcome, and please bring your friends and come in costume if you choose.

Purim is celebrated by reading the Scroll of Esther, known in Hebrew as the Megillah Esther, which relates the story of Purim. Under the rule of King Achashverosh, Haman, the king's prime minister, plots to terminate all the Jews of Shushan (Persia). His plan is spoiled by Queen Esther and her cousin Mordechai, who ultimately save the Jews of the land from destruction. When the Megillah is read it is usually a rowdy loud time, with booing and noise makers when Haman's name is read aloud. Haman's name is mentioned 54 times in the Megillah. Purim is definitely full of fun.

Purim has more of a national character than a religious character. Its status as a holiday is different than those ordained holy by the Torah. Places of business stay open and most everyday occurrences continue on.

There are four main mitzvot and obligations to celebrate Purim. They are; 1) listening to the reading of the Megillah or Book of Esther usually in temple, 2) sending Shalach Manot or gifts of food, 3) giving charity to the poor and 4) eating a festive meal called Seudat mitzvah. RTR is holding a fundraiser spearheaded by WRJ, for you to send Shalach Manot to your congregant family. I am hoping you will participate in this joyous tradition as it is a heartfelt way to connect with your community.

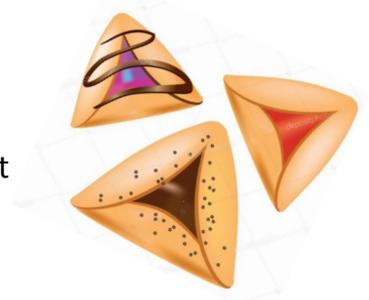

The Megillah is usually chanted in a different way than the traditional Torah is. I hope you will join us on Sunday March 8th for our Religious School Family Purim Spiel and Carnival 9:00am-11:30am. It is not only a children's holiday. Please join us for a Purim Cocktail Hour and Adult Purim Spiel Monday March 9th starting at 6:30pm.

Hamantaschen is the traditional pastry of Purim and has 3 corners like Haman's hat. It is filled with either a fruit filling, poppy seed or chocolate chips.

Please enjoy the following recipe to make hamantaschen:

- 3 eggs
- 1 c sugar
- $\frac{3}{4}$  c oil
- 2  $\frac{1}{2}$  t vanilla extract
- $\frac{1}{2}$  c orange juice
- 5  $\frac{1}{2}$  c flour
- 1 T baking powder
- 1 c fruit preserves (any flavor), or chips etc.

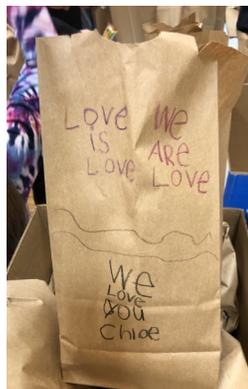

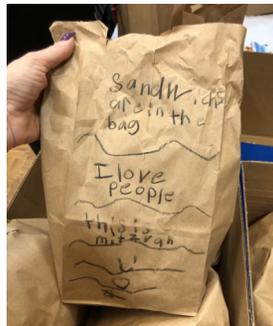

Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Grease cookie sheets. Beat eggs and sugar till fluffy. Stir in oil, vanilla and orange juice. Combine flour, baking powder, and stir into batter. On a floured surface roll out dough to  $\frac{1}{4}$  in thickness. Cut into circles using a cookie cutter or glass rim. Place cookies 2 inches apart. Spoon 2 teaspoon of filling in middle of each one. Pinch the edges to form 3 corners. Bake 12-15 minutes until lightly browned. Allow to cool. Enjoy!

Hoping you will join with us to celebrate this fun holiday. Wear a costume or mask and get in the spirit of Purim.

B'Shalom,

Adrian Modansky

FROM BRAD ZICHOLTZ, DIRECTOR OF CONGREGATIONAL LEARNING

Religious School in March

March 1 - is Yom Mezuzah in our Religious School!

Through a generous donation from the Waldorf family, we will be dedicating and hanging beautiful new mezuzot on all our classrooms. Jo Ann Waldorf will be reading a very special book to all of our students and will be there as we hang each mezuzah.

Students will also have a chance to make their own mezuzah to take home a kosher scroll also provided for by the Waldorf family. I cannot thank the Waldorf family enough for their incredible gift and for making a Jewish learning experience come to life.

March 8 - is our Purim Spiel and Carnival! In addition to all the silliness and fun, each of our classes are creating a display for their Mitzvah Mall. Each class has chosen a charitable organization to raise money for. Please bring extra money for tzedakah!

Adult Education in March

March 5 - Rabbi Sharff will lead a discussion about NY Times writer and editor Bari Weiss' important book How to Fight Anti-Semitism. It is an urgent wake-up call to all Americans exposing the alarming rise of antisemitism in this country—and explains what we can do to defeat it. 7:00 PM

March 15 - Has Science Replaced God? Come hear guest speaker Rabbi Geoffrey Mitelman who runs the organization Sinai and Synapses, which bridges the religious and scientific worlds, offering people a worldview that is scientifically grounded and spiritually uplifting.

For centuries, religion provided answers for our ancestors to all of life's questions. But as modern Jews, we usually look to science to tell us where we came from, who we are, or even how we should act. So how should we look at, think about and talk about the relationship between science and religion in today's world? Breakfast beforehand at 9:30 AM, sponsored by the Mne's Club. Rabbi Mitelman's program will begin at 10:00 AM.

L'shalom,

THE REFORM TEMPLE OF ROCKLAND

Hi! My name is Maya Kalender and I live in Nyack, New York with my parents and younger brother Dylan as well as my pets, Coco and Milo. I am a student at Blue Rock School in 7th grade. My favorite subjects in school are Social Studies and Art. When I am not in school, I like to ski, read, and hike. I am a mid-fielder on my field hockey team and a forward on soccer.

For over a year now, I have been involved with different organizations who help feed people who do not have enough to feed their own families. I have helped at The Rhoda Bloom Food Pantry, the Rockland Warming Center, and most recently helped out with the Midnight Run here at RTR. For my mitzvah project, I am working with the Clarkstown Resource Center in collecting Shop Rite gift cards to give to families in Clarkstown that need our help. I left a basket in the temple, labeled Maya Kalender, for anyone to drop off Shop Rite gift cards. Any amount is appreciated! Wish me mazel tov as I celebrate my special day on March 14!

A Special Congregational Meeting will take place on Wednesday, March 18
7:00-7:30 PM
If able, please attend.

The RTR Car Club encourages our members to help build friendships through a mutual enjoyment of automobiles. We hold a monthly meeting generally on the second Thursday of every month and share stories and experiences and help each other with answers to all questions regarding automobiles. We also attend events off site. If you are interested in joining our Car Club, please contact Barry Fleischman by email at barrymb@aol.com or by phone at 845-494-4023.

WRJ/SISTERHOOD

This month's message starts with a thank you to all who participated in our Super Bowl Sunday morning Bake Sale on February 2nd. Whether you baked, bought and brought, came to kibitz, helped sell or bought for yourselves- thank you. Our WRJ presence was noted and appreciated by all who were at RTR that morning – the families of our Religious School children, the Men's Club who had breakfast and a meeting, the blood donors and the blood drive staff and our Youth Groupers who worked the successful Annual Blood Drive. It was a busy wonderful day at RTR!

March goes in like a lion and out like a lamb – so they say. All we can say is that March is another activity filled month. Purim is coming! WRJ led by Jane Aronoff, Estelle Hans, Jodi Gischner and the temple staff set up the logistics of the Mishloach Project. We hope that you enjoy your "basket" and the well wishes that come from your temple family and friends.

March 8th is the Scooby-Doo! Purim spiel for the youth in our temple. Support their effort and bring a box of Mac & Cheese to use as a grogger and then donate it to the food pantry. March 9th is the adult Purim spiel send-up of Guys and Dolls. Come for a rollicking evening of adult entertainment brought to you by your sisters and brothers in the temple. Bring your box of Mac & Cheese to use as a grogger and then donate it to the food pantry. Then please join us on March 10 for our Knitting Circle.

March 21st is "Jewsical", a celebration of Jewish music on Broadway. It is a fun filled evening at RTR with a minyan of cantors hosted by our own Cantor Neff! Looking forward to seeing you there to cheer on the performances.

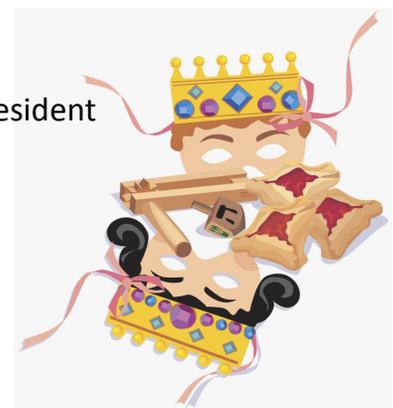

The month of March is rounded out with the Women's Seder on March 29th at 4pm. Our annual WRJ event is user-friendly and women-centric. Whether you help with writing, reading, singing, set-up, clean-up, food preparation, registration or hostessing – we appreciate your help and participation.

There is still time to volunteer to be a part of this special event. Please contact Laurie Firstenberg at laurie.rpc@gmail.com or Jodi Gischner at jodigischner@gmail.com. Please come and connect with your sisters and their Audacious Hospitality!

Wishing you all a Chag Purim Sameach!

Please note: On Sunday morning, April 26th, Ally Karpel from The URJ (Union of Reform Judaism) WRJ (Women of Reform Judaism) RAC (Religious Action Center) will speak to us on Reproductive Rights, citing US, New York and halakic law. All viewpoints of the attendees will be honored in a non-judgmental environment. Look for more details to come.

BRIT OLAM: SOCIAL JUSTICE COMMITTEE

PROTECT OUR COURTS ACT

The Brit Olam Committee (RTR's Social Justice Committee) will support RAC-NY's (Religious Action Center of New York's) 2020 legislative campaign: Protect Our Courts Act, which ensures that ALL New Yorkers can access our courts without fear of being arrested by ICE.

In an effort to support this cause, please look for the informational display in our main lobby: materials will be made available to you so you can write postcards to your legislatures and urge them to speak publicly on this issue in support of this bill.

In addition, if you are interested in becoming a part of this committee or if anyone is particularly interested in this issue and able to spearhead an educational campaign perhaps with an action please reach out to Brit Olam Chair, Nancy Bermon at n.bermon@verizon.net.

ALBANY LOBBY DAY

Attention all Activists! Registration is now open to participate in Albany Lobby day on Monday, March 16.

Reform Jews from across the state will gather together in Albany to learn together, prep together, and speak with a powerful voice about this year's campaign: Protect Our Courts Act.

If you would like to be a part of the cause, please register at:

<https://web.cvent.com/event/4bf16ad6-ddef-4169-9136-3d3a3e9aaadd/register>

Participation is $18 per person. Depending on the number of Rockland participants we will either carpool or hire a bus. Cost should not be a barrier for anyone interested in attending. If this is at all a problem for you please email Russ Agdern of RAC-NY at RAgdern@rac.org. Please contact Nancy Bermon once you register at n.bermon@verizon.net.

MEN'S CLUB

Just to fill everyone in on what happened on Super Bowl Sunday, we all know by now that Kansas City Chiefs beat the San Francisco 49er's. The real exciting news is that the Men's Club was the winner of the Super Bowl Pool. There were some contenders for the half time prize and third quarter prizes, but those chances slipped away. Brad Zicholtz was counting his end of game prize money when the 49er's defense fell asleep and allowed the Chiefs to score another touchdown, and all the prizes became a sweep for Men's Club. To prevent this from happening next year everyone has to step up and make sure we leave no winning boxes for Men's Club.

A thank you to all the people who donated blood to the Youth Group Blood Drive, and even to those who tried but were turned away, your caring is most appreciated.

2020 is a leap year and that means we added a day to the month of February. But a day didn't give February any staying power and in a flash it's March. March comes in like a lion, or at least a very busy month for Men's Club. That's because it's PURIM time!

Sunday March 8th is the family Purim Spiel and Purim Carnival. This event is brought to you by the Youth Committee, School Committee, and Men's Club. It's a great fun day for the kids, but we also need the PARENTS to help out. Make sure you bring your children to the event, and while there, give the committees a hand by volunteering a half hour of your time to help run this event. Don't miss the ADULT PURIM SPIEL Monday night. The RTR writers have put together a "Tony" winning adaptation of GUYS AND DOLLS with a renowned cast of performers. The Monday night cocktail hour is 6:30 to 7:30 PM. See you there!

The following Sunday, March 15, Men's Club is hosting a special breakfast for the Adult Ed program presenting Guest Speaker Rabbi Geoff Mitelman. Hope to see you all there.

VOLUNTEERING & OUTREACH OPPORTUNITIES

Volunteer for RTR...

Be a Yahrzeit Caller

Callers are needed to make a few (3-4) brief, weekly calls to remind people of the service schedule for their loved one's Yahrzeit. Names, relevant information and the script are provided weekly via email. You must have access to email to help with this project. If interested in helping, please email Jorie Sear at volunteer@RTRny.org.

Join Our Caring Team

There are members within our congregational family who could use an occasional friendly phone call or a visit. Do a mitzvah and join this group of other able and compassionate members who can show that we care for each other! To volunteer, email Eva Steen at Chesed@RTRny.org.

Volunteer in Our Community...

The Rhoda Bloom Food Pantry

Volunteers are needed monthly to help bag and distribute groceries to local families who need assistance. The shift starts at 8:45 AM and ends before noon.

Upcoming Dates are:

March 15

RTR Volunteer Day: April 5

Are you overrun with reusable shopping bags? The Rhoda Bloom Food Pantry is in need of extras. Please bring them to RTR and drop off in either of the lobby bins.

March 29-April 20
Tickets are on Sale now

Give To Our Ongoing Collections...

Items for Women of Domestic and Sexual Abuse

Social Action will be collecting items for women of domestic and sexual abuse and donating them to the Center for Safety & Change. Please help by bringing in the following items in all sizes: NEW sweatpants, NEW plain tee-shirts without writing and NEW flip flops. Thank you in advance for your support. Please direct any questions to Martha Siegel at mrsiegel48@gmail.com.

Give Your Old Shoes a New Life!

WRJ/Sisterhood continues their fundraiser collecting used shoes which are "worn, but definitely not worn out!" Used shoes are in great demand in developing countries. Recycled shoes create jobs and fuel local economies. Please drop off pairs of men's, women's or children's shoes. Look for donation boxes in the upstairs lobby and downstairs entrance.

Kosher Barley

Rockland Jewish Family Service works to alleviate hunger (one in six people go hungry) in our community through The Rhoda Bloom Kosher Food Pantry, which delivers kosher food to anyone in Rockland who is in need. The Food Pantry currently feeds over 200 (Kosher and non-Kosher) families in our community. RTR is collecting bags of barley for this cause. While you're welcome to bring in bags of barley, the Social Action Committee encourages members to make donations to the Social Action Fund to help cover the cost of these donations when we don't meet our monthly quota.

 Our weekly email, "e-Connections," goes out to our distribution list every Wednesday. This communication is for upcoming events and important announcements only. It is intended to be a short (two-page max.) newsletter; it is not intended to run repetitive flyers or announcements (i.e., Soul Mates shoe collection). Please note: stand-alone e-blasts are primarily for life cycle events.
- WEEKLY (Fridays): Erev Shabbat Services Handout Deadline: 10:00 AM Friday
 Each Friday, we prepare the Yahrzeit and Mi Shebeirach lists for the Shabbat Services handout. If there are any changes/additions to these lists, please notify the RTR Office by 10 AM on Friday. Changes/additions made after the deadline will be communicated to clergy and appropriately read, but the handout will not be changed.
- MONTHLY: Connections Deadline: 10th of the Prior Month (Ex: Dec 10th for Jan)
 Each month, we produce a bulletin that is mailed to homes and businesses. Entries are due in the Office by the 10th of the month for inclusion in the following month's bulletin. This communication is intended for ongoing events, flyers, news, articles, and announcements.
Submission Guidelines: Please submit your own flyers. Be sure to include a date, time, location, description and contact person. We accept all formats. All of the above information can be emailed to Susan@RTRny.org.
